

Washington Parish Communications District 9-1-1 Emergency Telephone Service Charges

Based on the Special Election held on Tuesday, November 8, 1988, and the Process Verbal of December 13, 1988, of the Washington Parish Police Jury, the Washington Parish Communications District set the "emergency telephone service charge" at the following rates which did not exceed the maximum permitted by the Special Election.

Business : $ 1.43 per exchange access line or their equivalent per month

Residence: $ 0.55 per exchange access line or their equivalent per month

Exchange access facilities in excess of one hundred per person per location shall be exempt from the service charge.

There are no exemptions in the language of the Special Election that apply to governmental entities.

For reference purposes, the following definitions are furnished as per the GENERAL SUBSCRIBER SERVICES TARIFF issued by BellSouth Telecommunications Inc. Louisiana on March 19, 2001.

Business rates apply for:

1. Offices, stores, factories, mines and all other places of a strictly business nature.
2. Offices of hotels, boarding houses, and apartment houses; colleges, quarters occupied by clubs and fraternal societies, private schools, hospitals, nursing homes, libraries and other institutions. For the purpose of this Tariff, a boarding house is defined as a structure where rooms are rented or boarders taken.
3. Services provided pursuant to the Sharing and Resale Tariff (Section A127.), even though residence client charge and residence directory listing may apply.
4. Service terminating solely on the secretarial facilities of a telephone answering bureau.
5. Service listed in business telephone directories or in the business section of the White Pages Directory or listed as a business in a combined residence/business White Pages Directory.
6. WatsSaver[®] service which is consolidated from separate locations and may include residential intrastate intraLATA toll usage.

Residence rates apply for:

1. Up to and including ten (10) individual lines which terminate at a private residence location for residence subscribers where a business listing is not employed in the Company's telephone directory. If a subscriber's total access line requirements are greater than ten (10) lines at their residence location, all lines over the initial ten shall be billed at the business service rates. Residence subscribers may have a maximum of three (3) residence service lines in a rotary or hunting arrangement at their private residence location at no charge. If more than three (3) lines are required in a rotary or hunting arrangement, a residence rotary or hunting arrangement charge shall apply for all lines in the arrangement up through ten lines as specified in Section A3. of this Tariff. If more than ten lines are required in a rotary or hunting arrangement, business Grouping Service rates shall apply for all lines in the arrangement, while the access line rate will depend on the total number of lines at that residence location. Special construction charges may be applied where multiple lines are terminated at private residence locations as specified in Section A5. of this Tariff.

In accordance with the Louisiana Public Service Commission Order No. U-22215-A dated July 6, 1998, existing subscribers as of May 20, 1998 with more than ten (10) residence service rated lines and those subscribers with more than three (3) residence service lines in rotary or hunting at their private residence shall be grandfathered for a period of five (5) years. After May 20, 2003, these subscribers shall convert their existing service to comply with the new tariff provisions. However, additional lines ordered by these subscribers or requests for moves of their existing service after May 20, 1998 shall be subject to the new tariff provisions.

2. Subscribers residing in private apartments in hotels, clubs, hospitals, and boarding houses who request their own individual residential service when business listings are not employed.
3. Subscribers residing in college sorority or fraternity houses who order their own individual residence service for their rooms.
4. Public or parochial schools.
5. Secretarial line terminations of residence main service terminating as extension lines on the premises of a telephone answering bureau.
